

Lancaster City Merchant Meeting Minutes

July 21, 2020 – 8:30 am
Virtual Meeting via Zoom

19 participants

Opening

Marshall Snively welcomed everyone to this follow-up meeting to the July 7 presentation. We are happy to help facilitate this important discussion on how to intentionally discuss and address racial equity causes. We are pleased to have the YWCA leaders provide this presentation.

Kathlene Sullivan shared that the 2nd Annual Lancaster City Indie Retail Week is going on now until Friday. Our retailers have been severely impacted due to COVID, and it is essential to support them now more than ever. Shopping can take place online or in person. Canvas tote bags are available to purchase online here.

Special Presentation – “Follow-Up Racial Equity Discussion for Merchants” presented by YWCA management team members: Stacie Blake, CEO; Dr. Lucia Murphy and Adam Hosey, Social Justice Mentors. View a recording of the meeting here.

Closing Comments

Marshall thanked everyone for participating in today’s virtual meeting. He shared special thanks to the YWCA Team. He encouraged participants to share this presentation with their peers to continue the conversation.

If anyone has additional questions, please email them to us at info@teamlanc.org, and we will work to get you a response.
