WHO ARE WE

Gourmet Market Lancaster is a downtown, experience-focused gourmet boutique.

We celebrate global flavors while serving Lancaster with thoughtfully curated products, hands-on cooking experiences, and welcoming food-centered gatherings.

MEET THE FOUNDERS

Gourmet Market Lancaster was founded by Julie and Albert Ndjee to build a space where food and education serve as bridge between cultures and communities.

Our experience in the food industry, and love for cooking shape everything we do, from the products we carry to the experiences we create.

WHY WE DO WHAT WE DO

- Celebrate community diversity
- Make new culinary traditions approachable and accessible
- Educate and empower home cooks
- Create inclusive spaces where people connect, learn, and share

Food is connection

- We believe food is your best Medicine
- Culinary education is empowering

Education is the first step to better health

WHY EDUCATION MATTERS

- The Traditional Grocery Store is a Jungle.

Our role is to:

- Offer a better alternative
- Show you how to navigate it.
- Explain what's in your food
- Teach how ingredients affect the body
- Help you make healthier choices practical and approachable
- Provide a safe space to experiment

WHAT WE DO

We combine market offerings with education-driven experiences.

- Curated global grocery products
- Cooking classes & culinary education
- Cultural food experiences & events
- Community, Private, group, and corporate cooking experiences

COOKING CLASSES WITH PURPOSE

Our cooking classes go beyond recipes

- What ingredients do in the body - Nexus between food and health.
- How to read and understand food labels
- How cultural food traditions support wellness
- How to cook with intention and confidence
- Food to avoid

OUR GOAL IN OUR COMMUNITY

- Increase food awareness
- Encourage healthier habits
- Celebrate cultural food traditions
- Create Unique experiences
- Build stronger community connections

WHO WE SERVE
