

Partner In Support

I collaborate with community partners to connect individuals experiencing homelessness to essential resources—meals, showers, laundry, shelter, and supportive services.

I serve as the bridge between life on the streets and the help that is available.

Building Trust. Connecting People to Care.

I walk alongside individuals who struggle to trust.

There is no timetable for trust. The work is a shared journey of patience, resilience, hope, disappointment –and meaningful moments of joy.

An aerial photograph of the Lancaster, Pennsylvania skyline. In the foreground, there are several modern buildings, including a large apartment complex with many windows and a parking garage. In the background, more buildings of various heights are visible, including a church with a prominent steeple. The sky is clear and blue.
